

Professional Development for Leaders

This element of the T Level Professional Development (TLPD) offer will provide you with a good understanding of T Levels, so you can shape the direction of your organisation, support the wider leadership team and monitor progress and outcomes.

Course: Operational Middle Leaders and Managers: Leading and Managing Curriculum Change for T Levels

Who is it useful for?

- Operational middle leaders and managers whose role includes curriculum development, management and planning and those working with roles associated with employer engagement, industry placements or similar.

Course outline:

This course supports the development of operational middle leaders and managers, as they lead their teams and support their organisational readiness for successful T Level delivery. The course focusses on designing a T Level curriculum with intent and leading effective change.

The course has two face-to-face* workshops:

- Designing the T Level curriculum: theory into practice
- Working with employers: co-designing the T Level curriculum, putting it into practice

Study mode:

It is possible to study the content of this course both online and face-to-face*. The two course options are similar but not identical and there is considerable benefit to attending both courses.

We recommend you complete the online course first to be better prepared for the face-to-face events.

Although this is not mandatory, it will maximise the impact of your CPD activity.

- Online course (TLPD11): Operational Middle Leaders and Managers: Leading and Managing Curriculum Change for T Levels
Recommended six hours of self-guided learning.
- Face-to-face events (C0931): Operational Middle Leaders and Managers
Each workshop will last three hours. There is the option for two workshops to be facilitated flexibly within a day's training.
- In-house training can be facilitated for your team as a group, either face-to-face or virtually. Please contact your Regional Facilitator for more information.

Learning outcomes:

By the end of this training session, participants will have the knowledge and confidence to:

- discuss the key principles of curriculum design for T Levels
- reflect on the core components of T Levels: industry placements, employer-led projects, embedding digital and the systems and processes required
- share approaches to work with stakeholders
- use Teach Too principles, approaches and toolkits to frame their co-design planning and delivery..

Entry requirements:

There are no specific entry requirements for this course, however it is expected you would be leading or managing the planning and implementation of T Levels within your Further Education provider. The TLPD offer is provided at no charge to ESFA funded providers. Face-to-face events are aimed at those delivering T Levels in 2020 and 2021.
