

Understanding T Levels

This element of the T Level Professional Development (TLPD) offer supports anyone delivering T Levels or advising learners about their Further Education options.

Course: Understanding T Levels for Frontline Staff

Who is it useful for?

- Practitioners working directly with learners in the delivery and assessment of T Levels, including staff in school sixth forms, Further Education and other settings, with limited knowledge of T Levels.

Course outline:

This is a first introduction to the T Level and wider technical education policy. It targets useful information for teaching staff, and changes they will need to make as T Levels are rolled out.

Study mode:

*These courses are delivered online and face-to-face/live online. Taking both course options will maximise the impact of your CPD activity, but if you are time-limited, taking either the online course or the live online event will provide you with the knowledge you need.

- Online course (TLPD01): Understanding T Levels for Frontline Staff
Recommended six hours of self-guided learning.
- Face-to-face event (C0929): Understanding T Levels for the Post-16 Sector
One-day, delivered on Zoom.
- In-house training can be facilitated for your team as a group, either face-to-face or virtually. Please contact your Area Relationship Development Lead for more information.

Learning outcomes:

This course will help you to:

- support the successful introduction of T Levels
- develop schemes of learning, learning activities and formative assessment tools
- access further resources and support.

Entry requirements:

There are no specific entry requirements for this course, however it is expected that you are or will be involved in delivering T Levels directly to learners within your Further Education provider. Online courses are provided at no charge to ESFA funded providers. Face-to-face events are aimed at those delivering T Levels in 2020 and 2021.

Booking information:

To book, create a profile on our T Level Professional Development Platform. After creating a profile, go to the Resources tab and search the relevant course codes, via the filter bar on the right-hand side.
