

Name and title	Presentation title and description	Bio
Dr Jos Parsons Principal Officer Further Education and Skills Inspection Policy, Ofsted	Ofsted Inspection – Safeguarding and Prevent Jos will take you through the Ofsted inspection of safeguarding (including protection from radicalisation and extremism). This will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Ofsted’s role and focus on quality (rather than compliance)</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Inspection methodology</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Inspection areas of focus</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Inspection guidance</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Inspection findings</li> </ul>	Dr Jos Parsons is the principal officer of further education and skills inspection policy at Ofsted. He has held various policy roles throughout Ofsted over the past 29 years. The last 20 have been spent in further education and skills inspection policy.
Polly Harrow Assistant Principal Student Experience, Kirklees College	Equality Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) as a guiding principle Polly will consider EDI through the lens of safeguarding, exploring EDI as a guiding principle in establishing a safeguarding culture. She will consider the importance of this guiding principle and what it looks like in all areas of provision including strategy, everyday behaviours and curriculum planning.	Polly Harrow is the Chair of NAMSS (National Association of Managers of Student Services) and an Associate with the ETF. Polly has over 30 years’ experience in the post 16 education sector and regularly delivers training across a number of themes including Safeguarding and Prevent.

Yvonne Richards  Director of Programmes and Learning,  Young Citizens	The Prevent Strategy and British values ETF have commissioned Young Citizens to create a ‘thought piece’ on how we can start to change the narrative around British values and Prevent. Yvonne will introduce some of the thinking so far and provide opportunities for you to feed into this thinking.	Yvonne has worked in the education sector for over 30 years. She’s a qualified primary school teacher with experience teaching at all levels of education from EYFS to undergraduate – and has worked in formal and non-formal education. Yvonne oversees the development of programmes and resources, at young Citizens, including its primary and secondary resources, mock trials competitions, teacher training, the SMSC Quality Mark and social action programmes. She is also the Designated Safeguarding Lead.
Bianca Holman  Head of Safeguarding and Welfare,  Newham College	Developing a culture of excellence for safeguarding: The journey so far Safeguarding and Prevent is such a key part of education policy, practise and education life. Is there more you can you do other than tick a box? And what would this look like? Discover how one college turned safeguarding into one of its top priorities and explore how you can develop a culture of excellence in safeguarding within your own setting.	Bianca is an accomplished, versatile professional development and training executive with a proven track record facilitating positive and continuous growth and change. Her expertise is in education and further education, safeguarding and prevent, leadership and management. Bianca is the Chair of the London F.E Prevent Network and one of the Regional Coordinators for the National Association of DSL’s.

Anju Virdee Interim Head of Leadership Institute, Education &amp; Training Foundation	Exploring the skills we need to lead	Anju has over 18 years' experience of working within the third, community and education sector. In her former years Anju supported learners in work-based learning with personal, social and emotional development and went onto lead and management leadership policy areas and is currently a Safeguarding link Governor. Anju has recently joined ETF as Interim Head of Leadership Institute.
--	--	---